

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

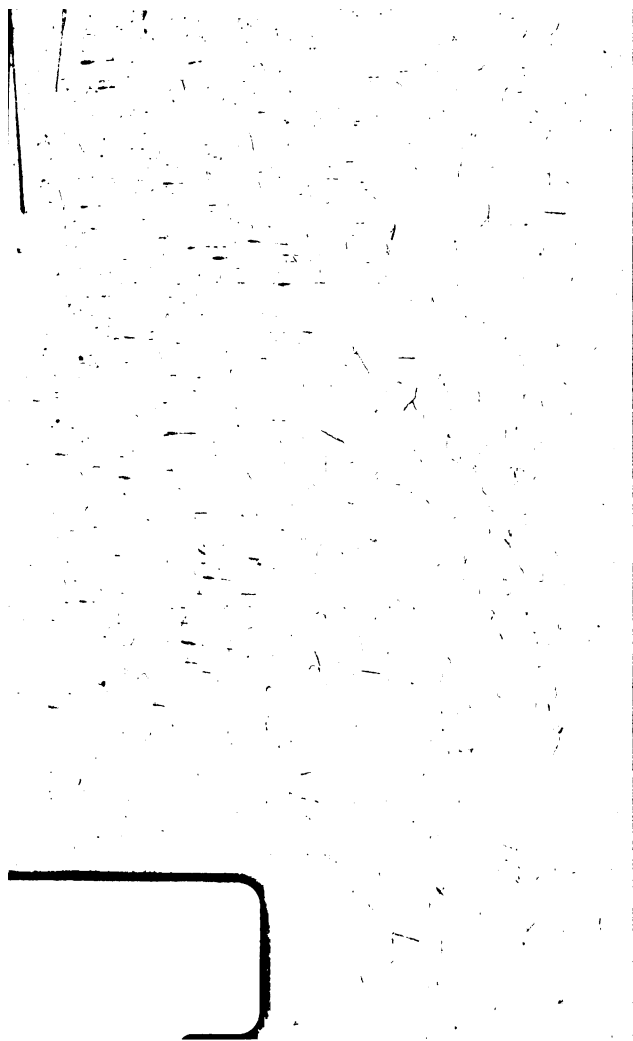

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. RULES

RESPECTING THE SALARIES OF TEACHERS BELOW THE RANK OF GRAMMAR GRADE PRINCIPALS.

1. The maximum salaries in the several grades shall be those established by the ordinance.

2. Assistant teachers shall be paid for their first year of service in our public schools, $350; for their second year, $450; for their third year, $500; for their fourth year, $525; for their fifth year, $575; for their sixth year, $625; for their seventh and subsequent years, $700; provided that their pay shall not exceed the maximum allowed to the grade in which they are instructing.

3. Pupil teachers shall receive $200 per annum.

4. Principals shall receive $25 per annum, in addition to the pay to which they would be entitled as assistants.

NOTE. — Assistant teachers in primary grades are paid $450 for their third year, and $500 for their fourth and subsequent years.

5. No vacancies in the position of primary principal shall hereafter be filled except in buildings having primary grades only.

6. Assistant teachers of the first grade in grammar schools shall be those having charge of pupils doing the work of the last year in the grammar school course.

7. Assistant teachers of the second grade in grammar schools shall be those having charge of pupils doing the work of the year preceding the last in the grammar school course.

8. These grades [first and second grades in grammar schools] shall be determined in September of each year for the school year ensuing.

9. The above rules shall not operate to reduce the salary of any teacher in our schools below that to which she is now entitled by existing rules, while she holds her present grade and rank.

10. The Committee on Qualifications shall have power, within the limits of the salary ordinance, to credit teachers in our schools who have had experience elsewhere, and those who are believed to be teachers of unusual merit, with such length of service in our schools as it shall deem proper.

BY-LAWS
OF THE
SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

ORGANIZATION.

SECTION 1. The School Committee shall meet for organization within one week after the annual election, in the month of April. All the members before acting, shall be duly engaged to the faithful performance of the duties of their office.

SEC. 2. At this meeting, a President, Secretary, and the following Standing Committees shall be elected, to hold their places during the year, viz.: An Executive Committee, a Committee on Qualifications, a Committee on the High School, a Committee on Evening Schools, a Committee on Music, a Committee on Drawing and Penmanship, a Committee on Vacation Schools, a Committee on By-Laws, a Committee on Text Books, a Committee on Finance, a Committee on School Buildings, a Committee on Health and Ventilation, and a Committee on Sewing.

SEC. 3. The following committees shall consist of one member from each ward, and shall be nominated by the Ward Committees, viz.: The Committee on Qualifications, the Committee on Music, and the Committee on Drawing and Penmanship. The Chairman of the Committee on Education of the City Council shall be ex-officio a member of the Committee on Qualifications.

The following committees shall consist of five members each, viz.: The Executive Committee, the Committee on By-Laws, the Committee on Text Books, the Committee on Finance, and the Committee on School Buildings. The Committee on the High School, the Committee on Evening Schools and the Committee on Vacation Schools shall consist of seven members each; the Committee on Health and Ventilation and the Committee on Sewing shall consist of three members each. A majority of each sub-committee shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 4. The first ward shall constitute the First District; the second and third wards the Second District; the fourth and seventh wards the Third District; the fifth ward the Fourth District; the sixth and eighth wards the Fifth District; the ninth ward the Sixth District, and the tenth ward the Seventh District; and the members of the committee from the wards constituting the several districts, shall be the District Committees for the several districts.

The members of the committee from each ward shall constitute the several Ward Committees.

ARTICLE II.

THE PRESIDENT.

SECTION 1. The President shall take the chair at the appointed hour for the meeting of the committee. In his absence, the Secretary shall call the meeting to order, and a President pro tempore shall be elected.

SEC. 2. He shall appoint, or direct the Secretary to appoint, one or more members of the committee to attend and conduct the examination of each Primary, Intermediate and Grammar School, and of the different divisions or rooms in the High School, at the close of the second term.

SEC. 3. He shall, at the regular meeting of the committee, held at the close of the first term, appoint three members, whose duty it shall be to prepare the report of the condition of the schools, to be presented to the City Council on the first Monday in June; said report shall be presented to the committee at the meeting held on the last Friday of April.

SEC. 4. He shall appoint the members of the Executive Committee and shall be chairman thereof, and shall also nominate the members of the following committees, viz.: The Committee on the High School, the Committee on Evening Schools, the Committee on Vacation Schools, the Committee on By-Laws, the Committee on Text Books, the Committee on Finance, the Committee on School Buildings, the Committee on Health and Ventilation, and the Committee on Sewing.

SEC. 5. He may, whenever he shall deem it expedient, call a special meeting of the committee.

ARTICLE III.

THE SECRETARY.

SECTION 1. The Secretary shall keep a full and fair record of all the proceedings, and shall preserve on file all papers relating to the business of the committee.

SEC. 2. He shall send a notice of every meeting to the dwelling-house or place of business of each member of the committee, at least one day previous to the meeting, and shall also send a notice to the chairman of every special committee appointed, stating the object of the appointment, and giving the names of the members associated with him.

SEC. 3. He shall keep in his office a record of the date of employment and discharge of all teachers, also a record of their respective positions, promotions and salaries, the rate of compensation of all substitutes, and shall keep an account of all school books, apparatus and stationery, and all supplies of every kind purchased for the use of the schools and the disposition thereof, and shall examine and certify all bills against the city, for the Public Schools, including the pay-roll of the teachers of said schools. He shall attend in his office, at least five hours of every week-day, during the time the schools are in session, and at such other times as the School Committee shall prescribe, and shall perform such other duties as said committee shall require. He shall immediately give notice to the City Auditor of the appointment of a teacher or the employment of a substitute, with the full name of the person appointed or employed, and the date upon which such person enters on duty, and shall also transmit to the City Auditor notice of the transfer of a teacher from one grade to another, or the resignation of a teacher. He shall immediately notify the City Clerk of all changes in the membership of the School Committee.

SEC. 4. He shall make up the record of every meeting within a week after its close; and the record-books and files of papers shall be open to the inspection of the members of the committee and shall be kept at the office of the Superintendent.

SEC. 5. He shall, at the request of five members, call a special meeting of the committee.

ARTICLE IV.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

SECTION 1. The Executive Committee shall advise the Superintendent in the discharge of the duties of his office, whenever he may refer cases to them; and shall direct or authorize him to purchase all necessary supplies for the use of the schools.

SEC. 2. The Committee on Qualifications shall examine candidates for the places of teachers, and make appointments on trial, subject to the approval of the General Committee.

SEC. 3. They shall, at each regular meeting, report in writing, to the General Committee, the names of all teachers who have been appointed or employed by them; and shall, during the second term, examine the list of teachers and report, at the regular meeting at the close of the last term, the names of those who in their opinion ought to be re-elected, and shall give at least one month's notice to those who have not been successful teachers, that they will not be nominated for re-election; and they shall, at least seven days before the regular meeting, at the close of the last term, furnish the Secretary with a copy of their list of nominations for the ensuing year, to be placed on file in his office for examination by the School Committee.

SEC. 4. They shall, from time to time, revise the course of studies in the schools. They shall satisfy themselves in the case of all new appointments of teachers that the persons appointed possess the ability to teach elementary drawing.

They may assign any teacher to any school different from the school to which such teacher was elected, provided such change shall not affect the grade of such teacher.

SEC. 5. The Committee on Finance shall examine all bills against the School Department, and if found correct and satisfactory, shall audit and certify them; and they shall report their examination of accounts at each regular meeting of the committee; and no account shall be approved which has not been so audited and certified.

They shall once in each year, in the month of November, make an estimate of the amount of money which will be required by the Public Schools for the succeeding school year, and present the same to the School Committee.

SEC. 6. The Committee on the High School shall possess the same powers and perform the same duties with respect to the High School, as the committees of the schools in the wards shall possess and perform with respect to the several schools under their charge.

SEC. 7. The Committee on Evening Schools shall, in connection with the Superintendent, establish and control Evening Schools in accordance with Article XI of these By-Laws.

SEC. 8. The Committee on Music shall have the general supervision of music in the schools; they shall examine the several classes at least once each year, and shall report in writing to the General Committee at least once in each year; they shall recommend the books to be used; and they shall nominate the teachers of music to be appointed by the General Committee.

SEC. 9. The Committee on Drawing and Penmanship shall have the general supervision of these branches in all the schools. They shall recommend to the School Committee any special instructor to be employed, together with any books, models or charts that may be needed for use. They shall examine pupils in both these departments, and shall report in writing to the General Committee at least once in each year.

SEC. 10. The Committee on Vacation Schools shall have the general supervision of such schools. They shall, in connection with the Superintendent, determine the number of schools to be opened, and may, from time to time, increase or diminish the same. They shall recommend to the Committee on Qualifications a suitable number of persons, who may, at the option of the Committee on Qualifications, be appointed teachers.

SEC. 11. The Committee on Text Books shall recommend to the School Committee such books to be used as they may deem advisable, and they shall have power to introduce into the High School such books as may be recommended by the Committee on the High School. All propositions for new text books intended for use in the schools shall be referred to this committee, who shall thoroughly examine such text book within three months, and report to the School Committee in writing.

SEC. 12. The Committee on Sewing shall have the general supervision of sewing in the schools, and they shall nominate to the Committee on Qualifications suitable persons to be appointed teachers of sewing.

SEC. 13. The District Committees shall exercise a general supervision over all the schools in their respective districts, except the High School. They shall visit or cause to be visited, all the schools at least once in each term, and at the regular meeting of the School Committee, at the close of each term, may report in writing, the condition of the grounds, buildings and schools under their charge.

SEC. 14. They shall also take into consideration every case of discipline reported to them by the Superintendent, or which shall be presented to them by appeal from his decision, and in such cases they are authorized to restore a pupil or expel him from a school as they may deem expedient.

SEC. 15. No pupil who has been expelled shall be admitted to any school without the consent of the General Committee.

SEC. 16. They are empowered in their respective districts to authorize and direct, in writing, the Superintendent to suspend any teacher for negligence, disobedience of the By-Laws, or for other reasonable cause; and in case of the suspension of a teacher, by the Superintendent, as provided in Section 2, of Article VII, they shall examine the case, and restore the teacher or confirm the suspension, as they shall deem expedient, and in all cases of the suspension of a teacher, they shall give immediate notice of their proceedings to the President, who shall bring the case to the attention of the General Committee at their next meeting, for such further action as may be necessary.

SEC. 17. The several Ward Committees shall notify the Secretary, in writing, of all members elected by them to fill vacancies, as soon after said elections as practicable.

ARTICLE V.

SCHOOL YEAR AND VACATIONS. — REGULAR MEETINGS AND EXAMINATIONS.

SECTION 1. The school year shall begin on the first Monday in September, and shall be divided into two terms.

The first term shall continue twenty-one weeks, including a recess of one week at the time of the Christmas holidays, the commencement of which recess shall be determined by the Executive Committee.

The second term shall commence on the second Monday following the close of the first term, and shall continue twenty-one weeks, including a recess of one week following the tenth week of the term.

SEC. 2. The regular examinations of the High School shall take place on the afternoon of the last Wednesday of the first term; and the annual exhibition shall take place on the afternoon of the last Wednesday of the second term. The examinations of the Grammar Schools shall take place on the afternoon of the last Friday of the first term, and the exhibition on the last Friday of the second term. The examinations of the Intermediate and Primary Schools shall take place on the afternoons of the last Thursdays of the first and second terms. There shall be an examination of the High School by the Sub-Committee of each room of the same, and of all the Grammar, Intermediate and Primary Schools, by the Sub-Committees of the respective schools under their charge, during the last week preceding the Christmas recess.

SEC. 3. The Examining Committees shall report through one of their number, to the General Committee, at the close of each term, the condition of the schools which they may examine.

SEC. 4. The Superintendent shall give notice, in the daily papers, of the time when the examinations and exhibitions of the several schools shall take place.

SEC. 5. Regular meetings of the School Committee shall be held on the Friday preceding Thanksgiving, the last Friday of the first term, the last Friday in April, and the last Friday of the second term, at 7½ o'clock P. M.

ARTICLE VI.

APPOINTMENT AND RESIGNATION OF TEACHERS.

SECTION 1. At the regular meeting at the close of the last term, the Superintendent and teachers for the next school year shall be appointed.

SEC. 2. The persons recommended by the Committee on Qualifications shall be considered candidates regularly nominated for their respective offices.

SEC. 3. On request of a member, the election of the Superintendent, or of any teacher, shall be by ballot.

SEC. 4. Any teacher who may wish to resign his office, may do so at the end of a term; provided, at least one month's notice of the intention be given in writing, to the Superintendent.

SEC. 5. A teacher who, without the consent of the Committee on Qualifications, shall withdraw at any other time, or without notice as aforesaid, shall forfeit all compensation to which he may be entitled at the time of leaving, or such part thereof as said committee may specify.

SEC. 6. The General Committee may, upon the suspension of a teacher by a District Committee, or by the Superintendent, or at any time, for any of the causes for which a teacher may be suspended, as aforesaid, dismiss a teacher from further service; provided, that such dismissal shall not take effect until one month's notice thereof shall have been given to such teacher.

ARTICLE VII.

THE SUPERINTENDENT.

SECTION 1. The Superintendent shall act under the advice and direction of the General Committee, and of the Executive Committee, and shall have the superintendence of all the Public Schools and apparatus; and shall visit each school as often as his other duties will reasonably permit, and carefully examine its progress and condition. He shall pay particular attention to the classification of the pupils and to the apportionment of the prescribed studies among the classes; and shall make such alterations of the districts as will equalize the attendance.

SEC. 2. He shall also advise and direct the teachers, in relation to the course of instruction and discipline in their respective schools; and see that the prescribed studies are carefully pursued, and that no books are used but those adopted by the General Committee, and that the best methods of discipline are maintained in a proper manner, for which purpose he may exercise the full power and authority of the committee, in enforcing and carrying into full effect all their regulations and orders in relation to discipline and instruction in the schools; and in case of the refusal of any teacher to obey his written instructions, he shall have power to suspend said teacher, reporting forthwith the suspension to the chairman of the District Committee.

SEC. 3. He shall examine into all cases of discipline reported to him by the teachers, or by the parent or guardian of a pupil, and shall take such action in the matter as he shall deem expedient; and if, on examination, he shall suspend or exclude a pupil from school, he shall report the same forthwith to the chairman of the District Committee.

SEC. 4. He shall exert his personal influence with teachers, parents and children, in order to secure as general and regular attendance of the pupils as possible; and shall continually endeavor to raise the character of every school to the standard of the best schools of the same grade; and shall keep himself acquainted with the progress of instruction and discipline in other places, in order to secure a progressive advancement in the condition of the Public Schools in this city; and shall at all times render such assistance to the several committees as may be required by them.

SEC. 5. All bills for the expenses of the School Department must be presented to him, and he shall, before the last Wednesday in each term, examine and certify his approval or disapproval of them.

SEC. 6. He shall keep regular office hours, other than the school hours, at a place provided for that purpose; which shall be the general depository of the books and papers belonging to the School Department.

SEC. 7. He shall purchase and have charge of the text books provided for indigent children, and of the distribution thereof; and shall furnish to the order of the teachers, all necessary blanks, registers, blank books and text books, for their own use and the use of indigent pupils, and shall furnish all other necessary supplies for each school.

SEC. 8. He shall, in case of the sickness of teachers, or other necessary causes of absence, provide suitable substitutes; and no one shall be employed as a substitute without his approbation; and all substitutes shall be employed at the expense of the absent teacher.

SEC. 9. He shall, at every regular meeting, report in writing, the number of pupils attending the several schools during the term; and shall give such information relating to the condition of the schools as he may deem important, together with plans for their improvement.

SEC. 10. He shall call together the teachers once, at least, in each term, in order that they may interchange their views on the various points of instruction and discipline.

SEC. 11. He may give permits to pupils residing in one district to attend school in another, when there are good and satisfactory reasons for the change.

SEC. 12. He shall, under the advice and direction of the Committee on Qualifications, at the close of each half-year, examine, or cause to be examined, the classes of the several schools, and make a selection of such pupils as are best prepared for promotion, and cause the proper transfers to be made; and no pupil shall be transferred from one school-room or grade to another without the consent of the Superintendent; and in making transfers preference shall be given to age when other qualifications are equal.

SEC. 13. He shall present to the School Committee, and also to the Committee on Qualifications, the names of all teachers who neglect or refuse to comply with any of the By-Laws or Resolutions of the School Committee, or any positive directions of the Superintendent, and particularly of the names of those who do not attend the regular meetings of teachers that may be called by the Superintendent, unless they may have been previously excused.

ARTICLE VIII.

TEACHERS AND THEIR DUTIES.

SECTION 1. Teachers in the Public Schools are required to observe and carry into full effect, all regulations and directions of the committee and of the Superintendent, in relation to the instruction and discipline of their respective schools; and to attend, punctually and regularly, all meetings called by the Superintendent.

SEC. 2. They shall be in their respective school-rooms at least fifteen minutes before the specified time for beginning school, and open the rooms for the admission of the scholars; they shall cause the bell to be rung fifteen minutes previous to the time appointed for beginning school; and they shall open the morning session of each school with reading from the Bible, as a devotional exercise, or with prayer, at the option of the presiding teacher. In all the schools other than the Primary and High Schools the teachers shall remain in their respective school-rooms at least fifteen minutes after the close of the afternoon session.

SEC. 3. They shall devote themselves, exclusively, to the duties of their office, and shall thoroughly prepare themselves, daily, in all the studies pursued in their several classes; they shall exert a careful supervision over their pupils while in the school-room and at recess, in order to prevent all improper conduct on the school premises; and they shall also extend their supervision to pupils going to and returning from school. The principal teacher in each building shall be held directly responsible for this supervision, and may require such aid from the assistant teachers as may be necessary.

They shall particularly endeavor to prevent, by personal presence in the boys' yard at recess, all rough treatment of pupils by fellow pupils.

SEC. 4. They shall take daily care that the school-houses, the furniture and apparatus in the same, as well as the out-buildings, fences, and all property belonging to the school estate, and books of reference, and those loaned to indigent scholars, be not defaced or injured.

SEC. 5. They may spend one-half day, each term, visiting such schools as may be designated by the Superintendent, for the purpose of noting the discipline, and the modes of instruction in the same.

SEC. 6. They shall carefully ascertain the temperature of their rooms, giving particular attention to ventilation; and they shall use all proper means to avoid those injurious extremes of heat and cold which negligence might induce.

SEC. 7. They shall enroll the names of pupils as soon as they are admitted, and carefully mark all the absences each half-day; and in all cases of absence they shall ascertain, from the parents or guardians of pupils, whether such absence is by their permission; and they shall report all cases of truancy, without delay, to the parents or guardians.

SEC. 8. A teacher who absents himself from school, excepting in cases of very great emergency, shall forfeit his situation, and his place may be declared vacant and filled accordingly; and all compensation during such absence shall be deducted from his salary.

SEC. 9. No teacher shall allow any person to occupy his place in any of the schools, without permission from the Superintendent; and when a teacher is compelled by sickness to be absent from school, he shall give immediate notice to the Superintendent, or to his principal.

SEC. 10. No teacher shall be permitted to receive any present or gift from any of the classes under his charge, nor shall any contribution be permitted in any school, by the pupils, for that purpose.

SEC. 11. No teacher shall send a scholar away to another school, without permission from the Superintendent.

SEC. 12. All teachers in charge of rooms shall record, in their respective registers, the names of the pupils, ages, places of residence, and dates of admission; and they shall make such other entries as shall exhibit a correct view of their absences, their conduct in school and the progress made in their studies; and the report of the same shall be transmitted to the parent or guardian of each pupil in the High School, Grammar and Intermediate Schools, at least once in each term, with a request that it be returned with his signature.

SEC. 13. The register shall be at all times open to the inspection of the members of the committee and of the Superintendent.

SEC. 14. Whenever teachers shall deem any misconduct of a pupil, either in or out of school, such as to render him an unfit member of the same, or shall believe his example to be injurious to the other pupils, they shall report him to the Superintendent; and whenever a pupil shall be guilty of violent opposition or gross miscon-

ARTICLE IX.

PRINCIPAL TEACHERS, AND TEACHERS IN THE HIGH SCHOOL.

SECTION 1. They shall severally make a report in writing to the Superintendent one week before the termination of each term, stating the number of pupils admitted, the average number belonging to the school during the term, the average attendance and the average age of the first class, and they shall give such other information as the Superintendent may desire ; and they shall append to each report the number of times each teacher in said school has been absent or late during the term, with the reasons for such absence or lateness. Any teacher, either principal or assistant, who fails, for any cause whatever, to be present fifteen minutes before the time for opening the school, shall be considered late, and shall be so reported by the principal to the Superintendent.

SEC. 2. They shall enter upon the catalogue, kept in the register, the name of every book placed in the library for reference, in their respective rooms, for the use of the teachers and scholars, also that of every text book for indigent pupils.

SEC. 3. They shall allow a recess each half day for all the pupils, not exceeding fifteen minutes from the time of leaving their seats until they are again seated.

SEC. 4. They shall give proper attention to the cleanliness and dress of each pupil.

SEC. 5. They shall, whenever satisfied of the inability of the parent or guardian of any pupil to furnish his children with the required school books, send a written order to the Superintendent, specifying the books needed. These books shall belong to the school, and shall be loaned to indigent pupils only, and shall be returned to the principal teacher at or before the close of every term, or whenever the pupil may leave the school.

SEC. 6. The principal teachers of the several schools shall examine carefully, before the commencement of each daily session, the condition of the stoves or furnaces by which their rooms or buildings are warmed.

SEC. 7. The principal teacher in each building may, in accordance with the direction of the Superintendent, substitute one session for the two daily sessions appointed. Whenever this is done, the session shall continue four and one-half hours, including two recesses, and prompt notice shall be given to the Superintendent of each single session thus held.

SEC. 8. The principal teacher in the higher department in each building shall have the general charge of the school building and grounds, and he shall give prompt notice, in writing, to the Superintendent, of all repairs and supplies that may be needed; and it shall be the duty of each assistant teacher to follow the direction of the principal and co-operate with him, not only during school hours and recesses, but also before and after school, when the pupils are on the school premises.

SEC. 9. The principal teacher of music shall have charge of the musical instruction in the High School, and in the upper classes of the Grammar Schools; the assistants shall have charge of the instruction in the lower classes of the Grammar Schools, and of the classes in the Intermediate and Primary Schools; and both principal teacher and assistants shall be under the general direction of the Committee on Music.

ARTICLE X.

PUPILS.

SECTION 1. Any child, in all respects qualified, may at any time enter the Primary, the Intermediate or the Grammar School in the district in which he resides, by applying to the teacher at the school.

SEC. 2. No pupil shall be admitted into any school whose residence is out of the city, or who may be boarding in the city, or staying with friends, chiefly for the purpose of attending a public school, except upon such terms as are provided by the city ordinance.

Nor shall any pupil attend a school in a district other than that in which he resides, except by a permit from the Superintendent.

SEC. 3. No child shall be admitted as a pupil in a Primary School who has not attained the age of five years; nor into the Intermediate or the Grammar Schools unless regularly transferred or found upon examination to be qualified to enter the lowest class therein, except by permit from the Superintendent.

SEC. 4. All pupils are required to be in their respective school-rooms before the time of beginning school, and to be regular in their daily attendance, and obedient to their teachers and to the school regulations, and to be decently and properly clad.

SEC. 5. Every pupil, who shall accidentally or otherwise, injure any school property, whether fences, gates, trees or shrubs, or any building, or any part thereof, or break any window glass, or injure or destroy any instrument, apparatus or furniture belonging to the school, shall be liable to pay in full for all damages.

SEC. 6. Every pupil who shall, anywhere on or around the school premises, use or write any profane or unchaste language, cut, mark, or otherwise intentionally deface any school furniture or buildings, inside or out, or any property whatsoever, belonging to the school estate, shall be punished in proportion to the nature and extent of the offence.

SEC. 7. Every pupil who shall be absent from school, shall, on his return, bring to the principal teacher a written excuse from his parent or guardian for such absence, which shall be received as satisfactory by the teacher; any pupil, however, who shall be absent from any other cause than sickness, five half days in four successive weeks, or who shall not attend the quarterly examination of his school, may, at the request of the teacher, be required to secure a permit from the Superintendent before resuming place in school.

SEC. 8. Pupils of the High and Grammar Schools who shall leave their respective schools before the close of a term shall, before entering again, submit to an examination for the determination of the classes into which they may be entitled to enter; and no promotions shall be made of absentees without a permit from the Superintendent.

SEC. 9. When a pupil can advance faster than his class he shall be allowed to do so; and he shall be promoted to a higher class at the beginning of each term, if fully qualified, when there is room; and when there is no vacant seat, he shall be permitted to pursue the studies of the advanced class.

ARTICLE XI.

EVENING SCHOOLS.

SECTION. The Standing Committee on Evening Schools shall, in each year, in the month of September, determine the number of schools to be opened, and shall also recommend to the Committee on Qualifications a suitable number of persons to be appointed as teachers of the same.

SEC. 2. The Standing Committee, acting under the advice of the Superintendent, shall, from time to time, increase or diminish the number of schools, and also the number of teachers, as the exigencies of the case may require.

SEC. 3. No scholar, without a permit from the Superintendent, or from the Standing Committee, shall be admitted into the Evening Schools, if under twelve years of age, or if able to attend the day schools.

SEC. 4. The Evening Schools shall be commenced on the second Monday in October, and shall be continued for a term not exceeding twenty weeks, as shall be determined by the Standing Committee; and a report of the condition of the schools shall be presented at the next regular meeting of the School Committee, after the close of the term.

ARTICLE XII.

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT.

SECTION 1. Each teacher shall aim at such discipline in his school as would be exercised by a kind, judicious parent in his family; and he shall not resort to corporal punishment until milder measures fail to secure good discipline. He shall keep a record of all instances of inflicting corporal punishment, which record shall be open at all times to the inspection of the Superintendent and the committee.

ARTICLE XIII.HOLIDAYS.

SECTION 1. The following holidays shall be granted alike to all the public schools, viz.:— Every Saturday; Washington's Birthday; Decoration Day; Thanksgiving and the day following, with the afternoon preceding the two days of session of the Rhode Island Institute, and all other legal holidays.

ARTICLE XIV.DISMISSION OF SCHOOLS.

SECTION 1. No school shall be dismissed without permission from the General Committee, or from the Superintendent, acting under the advice of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE XV.MISCELLANEOUS.

SECTION 1. The morning session of the schools, except the High School, shall begin at 9 o'clock A. M., and close at 12 M. The afternoon session shall begin at 2 P. M., and close at 4 P. M. The High School shall have a single session daily, of five hours, as the Superintendent may direct.

SEC. 2. No school-room shall be used for any other purpose than the instruction prescribed in these By-Laws, unless by the permission of the Executive Committee.

SEC. 3. No person shall be allowed to address any school, except the Superintendent and members of the committee, and those invited by them.

SEC. 4. No child shall be permitted to attend any school, without first furnishing to the teacher a certificate from the Superintendent of Health or some practicing physician, that said child has been protected from small pox, by vaccination.

SEC. 5. No pupil shall be allowed to retain his connection with any school who indulges in profane or unchaste language, or who conducts himself in a disorderly manner going to, or returning from school.

SEC. 6. No person shall be allowed to visit any school to make arrangements for, or to give notice of, any public exhibition, spectacle, concert, or other amusement, or for any purpose whatever, not connected with the schools and their instruction.

SEC. 7. It shall be the imperative duty of all teachers to make themselves acquainted with the By-Laws, adopted by the School Committee, and to read to their pupils, AT LEAST ONCE each term, such parts as relate to the government of the schools.

SEC. 8. A faithful compliance on the part of teachers with the By-Laws of the committee, and the directions of the Superintendent, shall be one of the conditions on which they may retain their connection with the schools.

SEC. 9. Writing or drawing shall be taught thirty minutes every day in all the Intermediate and Grammar Schools; and at the close of each term, there shall be an examination of the writing books, and such other specimens of penmanship and drawing as may be furnished by the pupils.

SEC. 10. In the selection of teachers for the several schools, preference shall be given to such graduates of the High School as have maintained a high rank therein.

SEC. 11. All directions given to any teacher in relation to instruction in schools, or the mode or hours of teaching any study or studies therein, shall be communicated to such teacher by the Superintendent of Public Schools.

ARTICLE XVI.

ALTERATIONS AND AMENDMENTS.

SECTION 1. Every proposition to repeal, to amend, or to make a new By-Law, shall be referred to the Committee on By-Laws, who shall take into careful consideration the same, and report to the School Committee in writing, at its next meeting, giving the reasons for or against the proposed alteration.

SEC. 2. These By-Laws shall not be altered, amended or repealed, except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, unless the proposed change shall have been submitted at a previous meeting, or at a special meeting called for the purpose, when a majority vote shall be sufficient.

CITY ORDINANCES.

CHAPTER CXVI.

AN ORDINANCE IN AMENDMENT OF CHAPTER XLIX OF THE ORDINANCES OF THE CITY OF PROVIDENCE, ENTITLED "SCHOOLS."

[Approved April 16, 1878.]

It is ordained by the City Council of the City of Providence as follows:

Chapter XLIX of the ordinances is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

SECTION 1. The public schools in the city shall consist of such number of high, grammar, intermediate, primary, evening and ungraded schools as may be established by the city council.

SEC. 2. Free instruction shall be given in the public schools to the children of all the inhabitants of the city who shall see fit to avail themselves of the benefits thereof, the pupils to be subject to such rules and regulations as the school committee may, from time to time, prescribe.

SEC. 3. The school committee shall appoint annually a superintendent of the public schools, and such teachers as they may deem expedient, who shall perform such duties as said committee may from time to time prescribe. The superintendent of public schools and the teachers therein shall receive such compensation for their services, respectively, as the school committee shall from time to time determine: provided, such compensation shall not exceed the rate fixed by the city council; and provided said appointments shall not be contrary to the provisions of this chapter. The superintendent shall keep regular office hours other than school hours, and it shall be his special duty to occupy his time during school hours in visiting the several public schools. The school committee shall also annually elect a secretary, who shall keep in his office a record of the date of employment and discharge of all teachers, and also a record of their respective positions, promotions and salaries, and the date of employment and discharge, and the rate of compensation of all substitutes, and shall keep an account of all school books, apparatus and stationery, and all fuel and supplies of every kind purchased for the use of the schools, and the disposition thereof, and shall examine and certify all bills against the city for the public schools, including the pay-roll of the teachers of said schools. He shall attend in his office at least five hours of every week-day during the time the schools are in session, and at such other times as the school committee shall prescribe, and shall perform such other duties as said committee shall require. He shall immediately give notice to the city auditor of the appointment of a teacher, or the employment of a substitute, with the full name of the person appointed or employed, and the date on which such person enters upon duty, and shall also transmit to the city auditor notice of the transfer of a teacher from one grade to another, or the resignation of a teacher. He shall immediately notify the city clerk of all changes in the membership of the school committee.

SEC. 4. The annual salaries of the teachers in the public schools, as hereafter fixed, from year to year, by the school committee, within the limits prescribed by ordinance of the city council, shall be paid to such teachers in ten installments. One installment, equal to one-tenth of their annual salary, to be paid to each of said teachers on or before the seventh day of each month, from October to July inclusive.

SEC. 5. No teacher shall be appointed to any school, to whom any member of the school committee or any school officer entitled to act upon the question of the appointment of such teacher, is related by either blood or marriage, as husband, wife, father, mother, son, brother, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, or first cousin; but the provisions aforesaid shall not apply to the appointment or promotion of teachers employed in the schools previous to the passage of this ordinance, or to the appointment or promotion of teachers employed in the schools previous to the election or appointment of a committee-man or school officer who may be related to said teacher, as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 6. All money appropriated for the support of public schools shall be subject to the exclusive control of the school committee, who shall have full power to cause the same or any part thereof to be expended in any manner which they may deem most advisable for the benefit and welfare of the schools; excepting so much thereof as will be from time to time required for the payment of the salaries of the superintendent and teachers; and excepting, also, all such appropriations as may be made for any specific purpose. Said committee shall also have full power and authority to establish and alter, from time to time, as they may deem expedient, the bounds of the several school districts, in order to provide suitable locations for such new schools as may hereafter be established by the city council, or to make more equal apportionment of pupils to the several schools. They shall select and designate the best text-books, and provide all such apparatus and all other means of instruction for all the schools, as may be necessary to keep the same in efficient operation, and to enable the pupils to receive all the advantages therefrom which it is the intention of this chapter to provide and secure. Said committee shall have and exercise a general discretionary power in all matters and things relating to the public schools, which are not specially provided for by this chapter, or by the laws of this state, and may make regulations not repugnant to said laws, or to the ordinances of the city, and shall annually, on the first Monday in June, report to the city council upon the condition of the public schools.

SEC. 7. No member of the school committee, school officer, or teacher, shall be directly or indirectly interested in the furnishing of any supplies or materials or in the doing of any work or labor, or in the sale or leasing of any real estate, or in any proposal, agreement or contract, for any of these purposes in any case in which the price or consideration is to be paid in whole or in part, or directly or indirectly out of any school moneys; or shall receive from any source whatever, any commission or compensation in connection with any of the matters aforesaid.

SEC. 8. No children from without the city shall be permitted to attend the public schools in the city, except upon the payment for each of such children, of a tuition fee of not less than eight dollars per quarter.

SEC. 9. No person shall be permitted to attend any public school in the city, as a pupil, unless such person shall furnish to the teacher of such school, or to the superintendent of public schools in said city, the certificate of some practising physician that such person has been protected from small-pox by vaccination.

TUITION FEES FOR NON-RESIDENTS.

CITY ORDINANCE, CHAP. CXXLV, SECTION 1.

Section 8 of chapter CXVI is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"No pupils from without the city shall be permitted to attend the high school, except upon the payment for each of said pupils not less than fifty dollars per year, to be paid quarterly, and for the children of non-residents attending schools of the other grades, a tuition fee of not less than thirty-two dollars shall be required to be paid also quarterly. These prices to date from September 1, 1884."

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

CITY ORDINANCE, CHAP. XXXVI, SECTION 40,
PAGE 296.

The superintendent of public buildings, under the direction of the standing committee on city property, shall have the care and custody of all the school-houses, buildings, fences and grounds belonging to the city, except as may be otherwise provided; he shall keep himself acquainted with their condition; shall employ suitable mechanics, and shall himself superintend all repairs that may be ordered on the same; shall supervise the construction of all buildings erected by the city, whether by contract or otherwise; and in general, he shall render such services as may be required of him in relation to such buildings by the city council or the board of aldermen or by any committee thereof.

CITY PROPERTY.

CITY ORDINANCE, CHAP. X, SEC. 1, PAGE 255.

The standing committee on city property shall have the care and custody of all the lands and buildings belonging to the city, and the furniture, fixtures and appurtenances thereof, and of the erection, alteration and repairs thereof, except as otherwise provided, subject to such rules, orders and regulations as the city council may from time to time adopt.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

- I. Calling the Roll.
- II. Reading the Records.
- III. Report of the Superintendent.
- IV. Report of the Examining Committee of the several schools, beginning with the Primary.
- V. Reports of the several District Committees.
- VI. Reports of the Standing Committees.
- VII. Reports of Special Committees.
- VIII. Unfinished Business.

RULES OF ORDER.

SECTION 1. A majority of the Committee shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 2. The President shall take the chair at the hour appointed for the meeting of the Committee, and shall call the members to order, whenever a quorum is present.

SEC. 3. He shall preserve order and decorum. He may speak on general questions, as other members, and on points of order in preference to other members.

SEC. 4. He shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Committee by any one member.

SEC. 5. He shall rise to address the Committee, or to put a question, but he may read sitting.

SEC. 6. He shall declare all votes, and if any member doubt the vote, the President shall require the members voting to rise and stand until they are counted.

SEC. 7. He may express his opinion on any subject under debate; and in such case he shall leave the chair and appoint some other member to take it, but he may state facts on questions of order without leaving his seat.

SEC. 8. He shall put all questions in the order in which they are moved, unless the subsequent motion be previous in its nature; but in naming sums and in fixing times, the largest sum and the longest time shall be put first.

SEC. 9. Any question shall be taken by yeas and nays, provided one-fifth of the members present shall demand it.

SEC. 10. Special committees shall consist of three members, and shall report in writing; they shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

SEC. 11. When any member wishes to speak, he shall rise, and with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the points in debate.

SEC. 12. No member in debate shall mention another by his name, but he may describe him by the ward or the district he represents.

SEC. 13. When two or more members rise at the same time, the President shall name the member who shall speak first.

SEC. 14. No member shall speak more than twice, nor more than five minutes at any one time, on the same question, without leave.

SEC. 15. No motion shall be acted upon until seconded; and, when required, it shall be reduced to writing.

SEC. 16. When a motion has once been made and carried, it shall be in order for any member voting in the majority, to move for a reconsideration.

SEC. 17. Every member who is present when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he be personally interested in the question, or be excused by the President.

SEC. 18. When a question is under consideration, no other motion shall be made except to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone, to commit, or to amend.

SEC. 19. A motion for amendment or postponement, shall be considered as the previous question, and shall be decided before the original motion.

SEC. 20. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, and shall be decided without debate.

SEC. 21. All elections shall be by ballot, when so required by any member.

SEC. 22. All questions shall be decided viva voce, or by hand vote, unless a ballot be called for by two members.

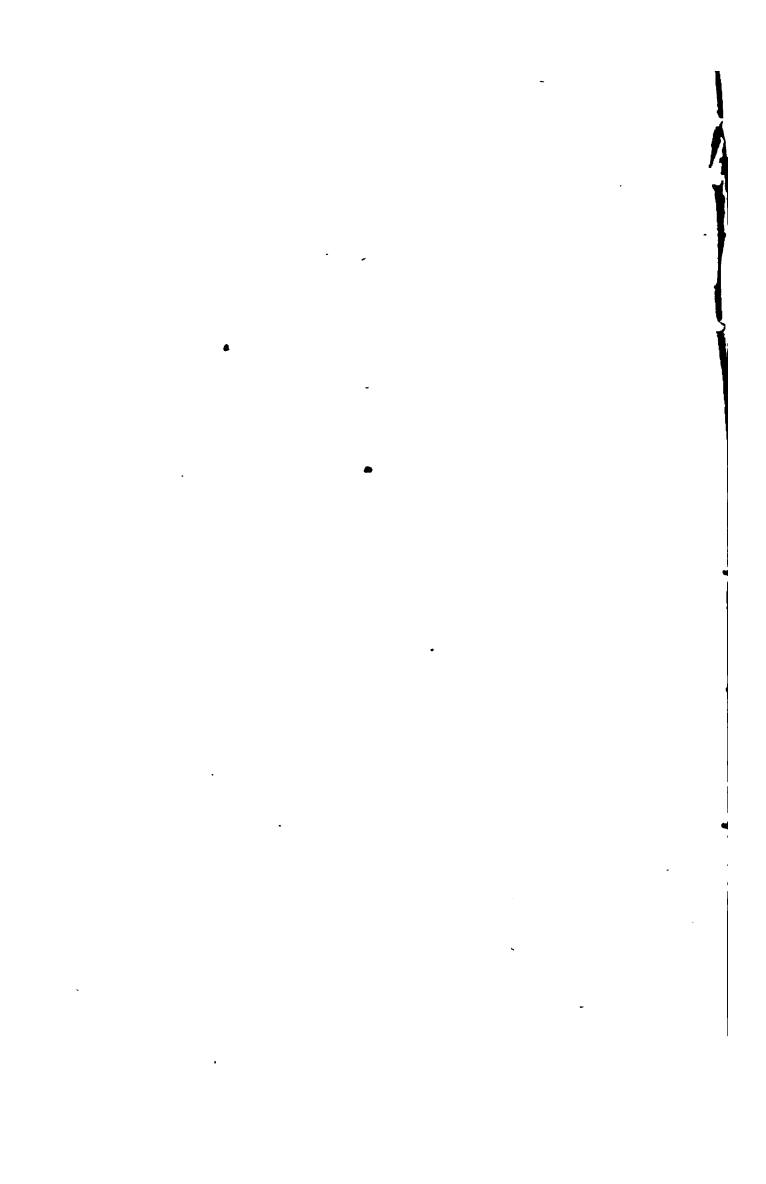

SEC. 23. The first member named on any Standing Committee, shall be the chairman thereof, until such Committee shall elect a chairman.

SEC. 24. No member shall be interrupted by another while speaking, except to correct a mistake, or to call to order.

SEC. 25. If any member transgresses the Rules of Order in speaking, the President shall, or any member may, call him to order; in which case the member so called to order, shall immediately take his seat, unless permitted to explain.

SEC. 26. None of the Rules of Order shall be suspended without the consent of two-thirds of the members present.

BY-LAWS
OF THE
SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

ORGANIZATION.

SECTION 1. The School Committee shall meet for organization within one week after the annual election, in the month of April. All the members before acting, shall be duly engaged to the faithful performance of the duties of their office.

SEC. 2. At this meeting, a President, Secretary, and the following Standing Committees shall be elected, to hold their places during the year, viz.: An Executive Committee, a Committee on Qualifications, a Committee on the High School, a Committee on Evening Schools, a Committee on Music, a Committee on Drawing and Penmanship, a Committee on By-Laws, a Committee on Text Books, a Committee on Finance, and a Committee on Sewing.

SEC. 3. The following committees shall consist of one member from each ward, and shall be nominated by the Ward Committees, viz.: The Committee on Qualifications, the Committee on Music, and the Committee on Drawing and Penmanship. The Chairman of the Committee on Education of the City Council shall be ex-officio a member of the Committee on Qualifications.

The following committees shall consist of five members each, viz.: The Executive Committee, the Committee on By-Laws, the Committee on Text-Books, and the Committee on Finance. The Committee on the High School and the Committee on Evening Schools shall consist of seven members each; the Committee on Sewing shall consist of three members. A majority of each sub-committee shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 4. The members of the committee from each ward shall constitute the several Ward Committees.

ARTICLE II.

THE PRESIDENT.

SECTION 1. The President shall take the chair at the appointed hour for the meeting of the committee. In his absence, the Secretary shall call the meeting to order, and a President pro tempore shall be elected.

SEC. 2. He shall appoint, or direct the Secretary to appoint, one or more members of the committee to attend and conduct the examination of each Primary, Intermediate and Grammar School, and of the different divisions or rooms in the High School, at the close of the first term.

SEC. 3. He shall, at the regular meeting of the committee, held at the close of the first term, appoint three members, whose duty it shall be to prepare the report of the condition of the schools, to be presented to the City Council on the first Monday in June; said report shall be presented to the committee at the meeting held on the last Friday of April.

SEC. 4. He shall appoint the members of the Executive Committee and shall be chairman thereof, and shall also nominate the members of the following committees, viz.: The Committee on the High School, the Committee on Evening Schools, the Committee on By-Laws, the Committee on Text Books, the Committee on Finance and the Committee on Sewing.

SEC. 5. He may, whenever he shall deem it expedient, call a special meeting of the committee.

ARTICLE III.

THE SECRETARY.

SECTION 1. The Secretary shall keep a full and fair record of all the proceedings, and shall preserve on file all papers relating to the business of the committee.

SEC. 2. He shall send a notice of every meeting to the dwelling-house or place of business of each member of the committee, at least one day previous to the meeting, and shall also send a notice to the chairman of every special committee appointed, stating the object of the appointment, and giving the names of the members associated with him.

SEC. 3. He shall keep in his office a record of the date of employment and discharge of all teachers, also a record of their respective positions, promotions and salaries, the rate of compensation of all substitutes, and shall keep an account of all school books, apparatus and stationery, and all supplies of every kind purchased for the use of the schools and the disposition thereof, and shall examine and certify all bills against the city, for the Public Schools, including the pay-roll of the teachers of said schools. He shall attend in his office, at least five hours of every week-day, during the time the schools are in session, and at such other times as the School Committee shall prescribe, and shall perform such other duties as said committee shall require. He shall immediately give notice to the City Auditor of the appointment of a teacher or the employment of a substitute, with the full name of the person appointed or employed, and the date upon which such person enters on duty, and shall also transmit to the City Auditor notice of the transfer of a teacher from one grade to another, or the resignation of a teacher. He shall immediately notify the City Clerk of all changes in the membership of the School Committee.

SEC. 4. He shall make up the record of every meeting within a week after its close; and the record-books and files of papers shall be open to the inspection of the members of the committee, and shall be kept at the office of the Superintendent.

SEC. 5. He shall, at the request of five members, call a special meeting of the committee.

ARTICLE IV.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

SECTION 1. The Executive Committee shall advise the Superintendent in the discharge of the duties of his office, whenever he may refer cases to them; and shall direct or authorize him to purchase all necessary supplies for the use of the schools.

SEC. 2. The Committee on Qualifications shall examine candidates for the places of teachers, and make appointments on trial, subject to the approval of the General Committee.

SEC. 3. They shall, at each regular meeting, report in writing, to the General Committee, the names of all teachers who have been appointed or employed by them; and shall, during the second term, examine the list of teachers and report, at the regular meeting at the close of the last term, the names of those who in their opinion ought to be re-elected, and shall give at least one month's notice to those who have not been successful teachers, that they will not be nominated for re-election; and they shall, at least seven days before the regular meeting, at the close of the last term, furnish the Secretary with a copy of their list of nominations for the ensuing year, to be placed on file in his office for examination by the School Committee.

SEC. 4. They shall, from time to time, revise the course of studies in the schools. They shall satisfy themselves in the case of all new appointments of teachers that the persons appointed possess the ability to teach elementary drawing. They may assign any teacher to any school different from the school to which such teacher was elected, but such change shall not affect the salary of such teacher.

SEC. 5. The Committee on Finance shall examine all bills against the School Department, and if found correct and satisfactory, shall audit and certify them; and they shall report their examination of accounts at each regular meeting of the committee; and no account shall be approved which has not been so audited and certified.

SEC. 6. The Committee on the High School shall possess the same powers and perform the same duties with respect to the High School, as the committees of the schools in the wards shall possess and perform with respect to the several schools under their charge.

SEC. 7. The Committee on Evening Schools shall establish and control Evening Schools in accordance with Article XI of these By-Laws.

SEC. 8. The Committee on Music shall have the general supervision of music in the schools; they shall examine the several classes at least once each year, and shall report in writing to the General Committee at least once in each year; they shall recommend the books to be used; and they shall nominate the teachers of music to be appointed by the General Committee.

SEC. 9. The Committee on Drawing and Penmanship shall have the general supervision of these branches in all the schools. They shall recommend to the School Committee any special instructor to be employed, together with any books, models or charts that may be needed for use. They shall examine pupils in both these departments, and shall report in writing to the General Committee at least once in each year.

SEC. 10. The Committee on Text Books shall recommend to the School Committee such books to be used as they may deem advisable, and they shall have power to introduce into the High School such books as may be recommended by the Committee on the High School. All propositions for new text books intended for use in the schools shall be referred to this committee, who shall thoroughly examine such text book within three months, and report to the School Committee in writing.

SEC. 11. The Committee on Sewing shall have the general supervision of sewing in the schools, and they shall nominate to the Committee on Qualifications suitable persons to be appointed teachers of sewing.

SEC. 12. The Ward Committees shall exercise a general supervision over all the schools in their respective districts, except the High School. They shall visit or cause to be visited, all the schools at least once in each term, and at the regular meeting of the School Committee, at the close of each term, may report in writing, the condition of the grounds, buildings and schools under their charge.

SEC. 13. They shall also take into consideration every case of discipline reported to them by the Superintendent, or which shall be presented to them by appeal from his decision, and in such cases they are authorized to restore a pupil or expel him from a school as they may deem expedient.

SEC. 14. No pupil who has been expelled shall be admitted to any school without the consent of the General Committee.

SEC. 15. They are empowered in their respective districts to authorize and direct, in writing, the Superintendent to suspend any teacher for negligence, disobedience of the By-Laws, or for other reasonable cause; and in case of the suspension of a teacher, by the Superintendent, as provided in Section 2, of Article VII, they shall examine the case, and restore the teacher or confirm the suspension, as they shall deem expedient, and in all cases of the suspension of a teacher, they shall give immediate notice of their proceedings to the President, who shall bring the case to the attention of the General Committee at their next meeting, for such further action as may be necessary.

SEC. 16. The several Ward Committees shall notify the Secretary, in writing, of all members elected by them to fill vacancies, as soon after said elections as practicable.

ARTICLE V.

SCHOOL YEAR AND VACATIONS.—REGULAR MEETINGS AND EXAMINATIONS.

SECTION 1. The school year shall begin on the second Monday in September, and shall be divided into two terms.

The first term shall continue twenty-one weeks, including a recess of one week at the time of the Christmas holidays, the commencement of which recess shall be determined by the Executive Committee.

The second term shall commence on the second Monday following the close of the first term, and shall continue twenty-one weeks, including a recess of one week following the tenth week of the term.

SEC. 2. The regular examinations of the High School shall take place on the afternoon of the last Wednesday of the first term; and the annual exhibition shall take place on the last Wednesday of the second term. The examinations of the Grammar Schools shall take place on the afternoon of the last Friday of the first term, and the exhibition on the last Friday of the second term. The examinations of the Intermediate and Primary schools shall take place on the afternoons of the last Thursdays of the first and second terms. There shall be an examination of the High School by the Sub-Committee of each room of the same, and of all the Grammar, Intermediate and Primary Schools, by the Sub-Committees of the respective schools under their charge, during the last week preceding the Christmas recess.

SEC. 3. The Examining Committees shall report through one of their number, to the General Committee, at the close of each term, the condition of the schools which they may examine.

SEC. 4. The Secretary shall give notice, in the daily papers, of the time when the examinations and exhibitions of the several schools shall take place.

SEC. 5. Regular meetings of the School Committee shall be held on the Friday preceding Thanksgiving, the last Friday of the first term, the last Friday in April, and the last Friday of the second term, at 7½ o'clock P. M.

ARTICLE VI.

APPOINTMENT AND RESIGNATION OF TEACHERS.

SECTION 1. At the regular meeting at the close of the last term, the Superintendent and teachers for the next school year shall be appointed.

SEC. 2. The persons recommended by the Committee on Qualifications shall be considered candidates regularly nominated for their respective offices.

SEC. 3. On request of a member, the election of the Superintendent, or of any teacher, shall be by ballot.

SEC. 4. Any teacher who may wish to resign his office, may do so; provided, at least one month's notice of the intention be given in writing, to the Superintendent.

SEC. 5. A teacher who, without the consent of the Committee on Qualifications, shall withdraw at any other time, or without notice as aforesaid, shall forfeit all compensation to which he may be entitled at the time of leaving, or such part thereof as said committee may specify.

SEC. 6. The General Committee may, upon the suspension of a teacher by a Ward Committee, or by the Superintendent, or at any time, for any of the causes for which a teacher may be suspended, as aforesaid, dismiss a teacher from further service; provided, that such dismissal shall not take effect until one month's notice thereof shall have been given to such teacher.

ARTICLE VII.

THE SUPERINTENDENT.

SECTION 1. The Superintendent shall act under the advice and direction of the General Committee, and of the Executive Committee, and shall have the superintendence of all the Public Schools and apparatus; and shall visit each school as often as his other duties will reasonably permit, and carefully examine its progress and condition. He shall pay particular attention to the classification of the pupils and to the apportionment of the prescribed studies among the classes; and shall make such alterations of the districts as will equalize the attendance.

SEC. 2. He shall also advise and direct the teachers, in relation to the course of instruction and discipline in their respective schools, and see that the prescribed studies are carefully pursued, and that no books are used but those adopted by the General Committee, and that the best methods of discipline are maintained in a proper manner, for which purpose he may exercise the full power and authority of the committee, in enforcing and carrying into full effect all their regulations and orders in relation to discipline and instruction in the schools; and in case of the refusal of any teacher to obey his written instructions, he shall have power to suspend said teacher, reporting forthwith the suspension to the chairman of the Ward Committee.

SEC. 3. He shall examine into all cases of discipline reported to him by the teachers, or by the parent or guardian of a pupil, and shall take such action in the matter as he shall deem expedient; and if, on examination, he shall suspend or exclude a pupil from school, he shall report the same forthwith to the chairman of the District Committee.

SEC. 4. He shall exert his personal influence with teachers, parents and children, in order to secure as general and regular attendance of the pupils as possible; and shall continually endeavor to raise the character of every school to the standard of the best schools of the same grade; and shall keep himself acquainted with the progress of instruction and discipline in other places, in order to secure a progressive advancement in the condition of the Public Schools in this city; and shall at all times render such assistance to the several committees as may be required of them.

SEC. 5. All bills for the expenses of the School Department must be presented to him, and he shall, before the last Wednesday in each term, examine and certify his approval or disapproval of them.

SEC. 6. He shall keep regular office hours, other than the school hours, at a place provided for that purpose; which shall be the general depository of the books and papers belonging to the School Department.

SEC. 7. He shall purchase and have charge of the text books provided for indigent children and of the distribution thereof; and shall furnish to the order of the teachers, all necessary blanks, registers, blank books and text books, for their own use and the use of indigent pupils, and shall furnish all other necessary supplies for each school.

SEC. 8. He shall, in case of the sickness of teachers, or other necessary causes of absence, provide suitable substitutes; and no one shall be employed as a substitute without his approbation; and all substitutes shall be employed at the expense of the absent teacher.

SEC. 9. He shall, at every regular meeting, report in writing, the number of pupils attending the several schools during the quarter, and shall give such information relating to the condition of the schools as he may deem important, together with plans for their improvement.

SEC. 10. He shall call together the teachers once, at least, in each term, in order that they may interchange their views on the various points of instruction and discipline.

SEC. 11. He may give permits to pupils residing in one district to attend school in another, when there are good and satisfactory reasons for the change.

SEC. 12. He shall, under the advice and direction of the Committee on Qualifications, at the close of each half year, examine, or cause to be examined, the classes of the several schools, and make a selection of such pupils as are best prepared for promotion, and cause the proper transfers to be made; and no pupil shall be transferred from one school-room or grade to another without the consent of the Superintendent; and in making transfers preference shall be given to age when other qualifications are equal.

SEC. 13. He shall present to the School Committee, and also to the Committee on Qualifications, the names of all teachers who neglect or refuse to comply with any of the By-Laws or Resolutions of the School Committee, or any positive directions of the Superintendent, and particularly of the names of those who do not attend the regular meetings of teachers that may be called by the Superintendent, unless they may have been previously excused.

ARTICLE VIII.

TEACHERS AND THEIR DUTIES.

SECTION 1. Teachers in the Public Schools are required to observe and carry into full effect, all regulations and directions of the committee and of the Superintendent, in relation to the instruction and discipline of their respective schools; and to attend, punctually and regularly, all meetings called by the Superintendent.

SEC. 2. They shall be in their respective school-rooms at least fifteen minutes before the specified time for beginning school, and open the rooms for the admission of the scholars; they shall cause the bell to be rung fifteen minutes previous to the time appointed for beginning school; and they shall open the morning session of each school with reading from the Bible, as a devotional exercise, or with prayer, at the option of the presiding teacher. In all the schools other than the Primary and High Schools the teachers shall remain in their respective school-rooms at least fifteen minutes after the close of the afternoon session.

SEC. 3. They shall devote themselves, exclusively to the duties of their office, and shall thoroughly prepare themselves, daily, in all the studies pursued in their several classes; they shall exert a careful supervision over their pupils while in the school-room and at recess, in order to prevent all improper conduct on the school premises; and they shall also extend their supervision to pupils going to and returning from school. The principal teacher in each building shall be held directly responsible for this supervision, and may require such aid from the assistant teachers as may be necessary.

They shall particularly endeavor to prevent, by personal presence in the boys' yard at recess, all rough treatment of pupils by fellow pupils.

SEC. 4. They shall take daily care that the school-houses, the furniture and apparatus in the same, as well as the out-buildings, fences, and all property belonging to the school estate, and books of reference, and those loaned to indigent scholars, be not defaced or injured.

SEC. 5. They may spend one-half day, each term, visiting such schools as may be designated by the Superintendent, for the purpose of noting the discipline, and the modes of instruction in the same.

SEC. 6. They shall carefully ascertain the temperature of their rooms, giving particular attention to ventilation; and they shall use all proper means to avoid those injurious extremes of heat and cold which negligence might induce.

SEC. 7. They shall enroll the names of pupils as soon as they are admitted, and carefully mark all the absences each half-day; and in all cases of absence they shall ascertain, from the parents or guardians of pupils, whether such absence is by their permission; and they shall report all cases of truancy, without delay, to the parents or guardians.

SEC. 8. A teacher who absents himself from school, excepting in cases of very great emergency, shall forfeit his situation, and his place may be declared vacant and filled accordingly; and all compensation during such absence shall be deducted from his salary.

SEC. 9. No teacher shall allow any person to occupy his place in any of the schools, without permission from the Superintendent; and when a teacher is compelled by sickness to be absent from school, he shall give immediate notice to the Superintendent, or to his principal.

SEC. 10. No teacher shall be permitted to receive any present or gift from any of the classes under his charge, nor shall any contribution be permitted in any school, by the pupils, for that purpose.

SEC. 11. No teacher shall send a scholar away to another school, without permission from the Superintendent.

SEC. 12. All teachers in charge of rooms shall record, in their respective registers, the names of the pupils, ages, places of residence, and dates of admission; and they shall make such other entries as shall exhibit a correct view of their absences, their conduct in school and the progress made in their studies; and the report of the same shall be transmitted to the parent or guardian of each pupil in the High School, Grammar and Intermediate schools, at least once in each term, with a request that it be returned with his signature.

SEC. 13. The register shall be at all times open to the inspection of the members of the committee and of the Superintendent.

SEC. 14. Whenever teachers shall deem any misconduct of a pupil, either in or out of school, such as to render him an unfit member of the same, or shall believe his example to be injurious to the other pupils, they shall report him to the Superintendent; and whenever a pupil shall be guilty of violent opposition or gross misconduct, they may suspend him from school; and in all cases of suspension, they shall forthwith give information, in writing, of the cause thereof to the Superintendent, and to the parent or guardian.

ARTICLE IX.

PRINCIPAL TEACHERS, AND TEACHERS OF MUSIC.

SECTION 1. They shall severally make a report in writing to the Superintendent one week before the termination of each quarter, stating the number of pupils admitted, the average number belonging to the school during the term, the average attendance, and they shall give such other information as the Superintendent may desire. Any teacher, either principal or assistant, who fails, for any cause whatever, to be present fifteen minutes before the time for opening the school, shall be considered late, and shall be so reported by the principal to the Superintendent.

SEC. 2. They shall enter upon the catalogue, kept in the register, the name of every book placed in the library for reference, in their respective rooms, for the use of the teachers and scholars, also that of every text book for indigent pupils.

SEC. 3. They shall allow a recess in each morning session for all the pupils, not exceeding fifteen minutes from the time of leaving their seats until they are again seated.

SEC. 4. They shall give proper attention to the cleanliness and dress of each pupil.

SEC. 5. They shall, whenever satisfied of the inability of the parent or guardian of any pupil to furnish his children with the required school books, send a written order to the Superintendent, specifying the books needed. These books shall belong to the school, and shall be loaned to indigent pupils only, and shall be returned to the principal teacher at or before the close of every term, or whenever the pupil may leave the school.

SEC. 6. The principal teachers of the several schools shall examine carefully, before the commencement of each daily session, the condition of the stoves or furnaces by which their rooms or buildings are warmed.

SEC. 7. The principal teacher in each building may, in accordance with the direction of the Superintendent, substitute one session for the two daily sessions appointed. Whenever this is done, the session shall continue four hours, including two recesses, and prompt notice shall be given to the Superintendent of each single session thus held.

SEC. 8. The principal teacher in the higher department in each building shall have the general charge of the school building and grounds, and he shall give prompt notice, in writing, to the Superintendent, of all repairs and supplies that may be needed; and it shall be the duty of each assistant teacher to follow the direction of the principal and coöperate with him, not only during school hours and recesses, but also before and after school, when the pupils are on the school premises.

SEC. 9. The principal teacher of music shall have charge of the musical instruction in the High School, and in the upper classes of the Grammar Schools; the assistants shall have charge of the instruction in the lower classes of the Grammar Schools, and of the classes in the Intermediate and Primary Schools; and both principal teacher and assistants shall be under the general direction of the Committee on Music.

ARTICLE X.

PUPILS.

SECTION 1. Any child, in all respects qualified, may at any time enter the Primary, the Intermediate or the Grammar School in the district in which he resides, by applying to the teacher at the school.

SEC. 2. No pupil shall be admitted into any school whose residence is out of the city, or who may be boarding in the city, or staying with friends, chiefly for the purpose of attending a public school, except upon such terms as are provided by the city ordinance.

Nor shall any pupil attend a school in a district other than that in which he resides, except by a permit from the Superintendent.

SEC. 3. No child shall be admitted as a pupil in a Primary School who has not attained the age of five years; nor into the Intermediate or the Grammar school unless regularly transferred or found upon examination to be qualified to enter the lowest class therein, except by permit from the Superintendent.

SEC. 4. All pupils are required to be in their respective school-rooms before the time of beginning school, and to be regular in their daily attendance, and obedient to their teachers and to the school regulations, and to be decently and properly clad.

SEC. 5. Every pupil, who shall accidentally or otherwise, injure any school property, whether fences, gates, trees or shrubs, or any building, or any part thereof, or break any window glass, or injure or destroy any instrument, apparatus or furniture belonging to the school, shall be liable to pay in full for all damages.

SEC. 6. Every pupil who shall, anywhere on or around the school premises, use or write any profane or unchaste language, cut, mark, or otherwise intentionally deface any school furniture or buildings, inside or out, or any property whatsoever, belonging to the school estate, shall be punished in proportion to the nature and extent of the offence.

SEC. 7. Every pupil who shall be absent from school, shall, on his return, bring to the principal teacher a written excuse from his parent or guardian for such absence, which shall be received as satisfactory by the teacher; any pupil, however, who shall be absent from any other cause than sickness, five half days in four successive weeks, or who shall not attend the term examination of his school, may, at the request of the teacher, be required to secure a permit from the Superintendent before resuming place in school.

SEC. 8. Pupils of the High and Grammar Schools who shall leave their respective schools before the close of a term shall, before entering again, submit to an examination for the determination of the classes into which they may be entitled to enter; and no promotions shall be made of absentees without a permit from the Superintendent.

SEC. 9. When a pupil can advance faster than his class he shall be allowed to do so; and he shall be promoted to a higher class at the beginning of each term, if fully qualified, when there is room; and when there is no vacant seat, he shall be permitted to pursue the studies of the advanced class.

ARTICLE XI.

EVENING SCHOOLS.

SECTION 1. The Standing Committee on Evening Schools shall, in each year, in the month of September, determine the number of schools to be opened, and shall also recommend to the Committee on Qualifications a suitable number of persons to be appointed as teachers of the same.

SEC. 2. The Standing Committee shall, from time to time, increase or diminish the number of schools, and also the number of teachers, as the exigencies of the case may require.

SEC. 3. No scholar, without a permit from the Superintendent, shall be admitted into the Evening Schools, if under twelve years of age, or if able to attend the day schools.

SEC. 4. The Evening Schools shall be commenced on the second Monday in October, and shall be continued for a term not exceeding twenty weeks, as shall be determined by the Standing Committee: and a report of the condition of the schools shall be presented at the next regular meeting of the School Committee, after the close of the term.

ARTICLE XII.

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT.

SECTION 1. Each teacher shall aim at such discipline in his school as would be exercised by a kind, judicious parent in his family; and he shall not resort to corporal punishment until milder measures fail to secure good discipline. He shall keep a record of all instances of inflicting corporal punishment, which record shall be open at all times to the inspection of the Superintendent and the committee.

ARTICLE XIII.HOLIDAYS.

SECTION 1. The following holidays shall be granted alike to all the public schools, viz.:— Every Saturday; Washington's Birthday; Decoration Day; Thanksgiving with the afternoon preceding and the day following, and the two days session of the Rhode Island Institute of Instruction.

ARTICLE XIV.DISMISSION OF SCHOOLS.

SECTION 1. No school shall be dismissed without permission from the General Committee, or from the Superintendent, acting under the advice of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE XV.MISCELLANEOUS.

SECTION 1. The morning session of the schools, except the High School, shall begin at 9 o'clock A. M. and close at 12 M. The afternoon session shall begin at 2 P. M. and close at 4 P. M. The High School shall have a single session daily, of five hours, as the Superintendent may direct.

SEC. 2. No school-room shall be used for any other purpose than the instruction prescribed in these By-Laws, unless by the permission of the Executive Committee.

SEC. 3. No person shall be allowed to address any school, except the Superintendent and members of the committee, and those invited by them.

SEC. 4. No child shall be permitted to attend any school, without first furnishing to the teacher a certificate from the Superintendent of Health or some practicing physician, that said child has been protected from small-pox, by vaccination.

SEC. 5. No pupil shall be allowed to retain his connection with any school who indulges in profane or unchaste language, or who conducts himself in a disorderly manner going to, or returning from school.

SEC. 6. No person shall be allowed to visit any school to make arrangements for, or to give notice of, any public exhibition, spectacle, concert, or other amusement, or for any purpose whatever, not connected with the schools and their instruction.

SEC. 7. It shall be the imperative duty of all teachers to make themselves acquainted with the By-Laws, adopted by the school Committee, and to read to their pupils, AT LEAST ONCE each term, such parts as relate to the government of the schools.

SEC. 8. A faithful compliance on the part of teachers with the By-Laws of the committee, and the directions of the Superintendent, shall be one of the conditions on which they may retain their connection with the schools.

SEC. 9. Writing or drawing shall be taught thirty minutes every day in all the Intermediate and Grammar Schools; and at the close of each term, there shall be an examination of the writing books, and such other specimens of penmanship and drawing as may be furnished by the pupils.

SEC. 10. In the selection of teachers for the several schools, preference shall be given to such graduates of the High School as have maintained a high rank therein.

SEC. 11. All directions given to any teacher in relation to instruction in schools, or the mode or hours of teaching any study or studies therein, shall be communicated to such teacher by the Superintendent of Public Schools.

ARTICLE XVI.

ALTERATIONS AND AMENDMENTS.

SECTION 1. Every proposition to repeal, to amend, or to make a new By-Law, shall be referred to the Committee on By-Laws, who shall take into careful consideration the same, and report to the School Committee in writing, at its next meeting, giving the reasons for or against the proposed alteration.

SEC. 2. These By-laws shall not be altered, amended or repealed, except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, unless the proposed change shall have been submitted at a previous meeting, or at a special meeting called for the purpose, when a majority vote shall be sufficient.

ARTICLE XVII.

DUTIES OF THE TRUANT OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The Truant Officers shall endeavor to procure the attendance at school of all the children of the city who are required by law to attend school, and especially of such as are not members of any school, visiting them at their homes or places of employment, or looking after them in the streets, for this purpose.

SEC. 2. Those duties that are plainly assigned the Truant Officers in the law of the State or the ordinances of the city, are incumbent upon them and need not be repeated here.

SEC. 3. When the Truant Officers shall be unable to procure the attendance at school, either public or private, of any child who is an habitual truant, or who is required by the provisions of the statute law to attend school, it shall be the duty of such officers to report the full facts in the case to the Superintendent, who, with the advice and consent of the Executive Committee, may order the arrest and prosecution of the child, according to law.

SEC. 4. Every truant, and every pupil suspected of truancy, shall be promptly reported to them, and it shall be their duty to investigate the case, to return the pupil to school, if possible, and at all events to make an early report to the teacher. They shall also make detailed written reports of their work to the School Committee at its regular meetings. They shall be in attendance at the office of the Superintendent of Schools two days in each week, from 12.45 to 1 P. M., one on Mondays and Wednesdays, and the other on Tuesdays and Thursdays, to meet any teachers who may wish to see them, and to render any service connected with the attendance of pupils that the Superintendent may require.

SEC. 5. The Executive Committee shall divide the city into two districts, of which one shall be the special field of labor of each officer.

SEC. 6. They shall report to the Superintendent of Public Schools, on Monday of each week, the several cases of non-attendance or truancy which they have investigated during the preceding week, and the result of their investigation.

SEC. 7. It shall be the duty of the Truant Officers to keep lists as full and accurate as practicable, of children under the age of fifteen years, who are "employed in any manufacturing, mechanical or mercantile establishments, or by any telegraph or telephone companies in this city," or who without employment are non-attendants at any school.

CITY ORDINANCES.

CHAPTER CXVI.

AN ORDINANCE IN AMENDMENT OF CHAPTER XLIX OF THE ORDINANCES OF THE CITY OF PROVIDENCE, ENTITLED "SCHOOLS."

[Approved April 16, 1878.]

It is ordained by the City Council of the City of Providence as follows:

Chapter XLIX of the ordinances is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

SECTION 1. The public schools in the city shall consist of such number of high, grammar, intermediate, primary, evening and ungraded schools as may be established by the city council.

SEC. 2. Free instruction shall be given in the public schools to the children of all the inhabitants of the city who shall see fit to avail themselves of the benefits thereof, the pupils to be subject to such rules and regulations as the school committee may, from time to time, prescribe.

SEC. 3. The school committee shall appoint annually a superintendent of the public schools, and such teachers as they may deem expedient, who shall perform such duties as said committee may from time to time prescribe. The superintendent of public schools and the teachers therein shall receive such compensation for their services, respectively, as the school committee shall from time to time determine: provided, such compensation shall not exceed the rate fixed by the city council; and provided said appointments shall not be contrary to the provisions of this chapter. The superintendent shall keep regular office hours other than school hours, and it shall be his special duty to occupy his time during school hours in visiting the several public schools. The school committee shall also annually elect a secretary, who shall keep in his office a record of the date of employment and discharge of all teachers, and also a record of their respective positions, promotions and salaries, and the date of employment and discharge, and the rate of compensation of all substitutes, and shall keep an account of all school books, apparatus and stationery, and all fuel and supplies of every kind purchased for the use of the schools, and the disposition thereof, and shall examine and certify all bills against the city for the public schools, including the pay-roll of the teachers of said schools. He shall attend in his office, at least five hours of every week-day, during the time the schools are in session, and at such other times as the school committee shall prescribe, and shall perform such other duties as said committee shall require. He shall immediately give notice to the city auditor of the appointment of a teacher or the employment of a substitute, with the full name of the person appointed or employed, and the date on which such person enters upon duty, and shall also transmit to the city auditor notice of the transfer of a teacher from one grade to another, or the resignation of a teacher. He shall immediately notify the city clerk of all changes in the membership of the school committee.

SEC. 4. The annual salaries of the teachers in the public schools, as hereafter fixed, from year to year, by the school committee, within the limits prescribed by ordinance of the city council, shall be paid to such teachers in ten installments. One installment, equal to one-tenth of their annual salary, to be paid to each of said teachers on or before the seventh day of each month, from October to July inclusive.

SEC. 5. No teacher shall be appointed to any school, to whom any member of the school committee or any school officer entitled to act upon the question of the appointment of such teacher, is related by either blood or marriage, as husband, wife, father, mother, son, brother, uncle, aunt, nephew, neice, or first cousin; but the provisions aforesaid shall not apply to the appointment or promotion of teachers employed in the schools previous to the passage of this ordinance, or to the appointment or promotion of teachers employed in the schools previous to the election or appointment of a committee-man or school officer who may be related to said teacher, as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 6. All money appropriated for the support of public schools shall be subject to the exclusive control of the school committee, who shall have full power to cause the same or any part thereof to be expended in any manner which they may deem most advisable for the benefit and welfare of the schools; excepting so much thereof as will be from time to time required for the payment of the salaries of the superintendent and teachers; and excepting, also, all such appropriations as may be made for any specific purpose. Said committee shall also have full power and authority to establish and alter, from time to time, as they may deem expedient, the bounds of the several school districts, in order to provide suitable locations for such new schools as may hereafter be established by the city council, or to make more equal apportionment of pupils to the several schools. They shall select and designate the best text-books, and provide all such apparatus and all other means of instruction for all the schools, as may be necessary to keep the same in efficient operation, and to enable the pupils to receive all the advantages therefrom which it is the intention of this chapter to provide and secure. Said committee shall have and exercise a general discretionary power in all matters and things relating to the public schools, which are not specially provided for by this chapter, or by the laws of this state, and may make regulations not repugnant to said laws, or to the ordinances of the city, and shall annually, on the first Monday in June, report to the city council upon the condition of the public schools.

SEC. 7. No member of the school committee, school officer, or teacher, shall be directly or indirectly interested in the furnishing of any supplies or materials or in the doing of any work or labor, or in the sale or leasing of any real estate, or in any proposal, agreement or contract, for any of these purposes in any case in which the price or consideration is to be paid in whole or in part, or directly or indirectly out of any school moneys; or shall receive from any source whatever, any commission or compensation in connection with any of the matters aforesaid.

SEC. 8. No children from without the city shall be permitted to attend the public schools in the city, except upon the payment for each of such children, of a tuition fee of not less than eight dollars per quarter.

SEC. 9. No person shall be permitted to attend any public school in the city, as a pupil, unless such person shall furnish to the teacher of such school, or to the superintendent of public schools in said city, the certificate of some practising physician that such person has been protected from small-pox by vaccination.

TUITION FEES FOR NON-RESIDENTS.

CITY ORDINANCE, CHAP. CCXLV, SECTION 1.

Section 8 of chapter CXVI is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"No pupils from without the city shall be permitted to attend the high school, except upon the payment for each of said pupils not less than sixty dollars per year, to be paid quarterly, and for the children of non-residents attending schools of the other grades, a tuition fee of not less than thirty-two dollars shall be required to be paid also quarterly. These prices to date from September 1, 1884."

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

CITY ORDINANCE, CHAP. XXXVI, SECTION 40,
PAGE 296.

The superintendent of public buildings, under the direction of the standing committee on city property, shall have the care and custody of all the school-houses, buildings, fences and grounds belonging to the city, except as may be otherwise provided; he shall keep himself acquainted with their condition; shall employ suitable mechanics, and shall himself superintend all repairs that may be ordered on the same; shall supervise the construction of all buildings erected by the city, whether by contract or otherwise; and in general, he shall render such services as may be required of him in relation to such buildings by the city council or the board of aldermen or by any committee thereof.

CITY PROPERTY.

CITY ORDINANCE, CHAP. X, SEC. 1, PAGE 255.

The standing committee on city property shall have the care and custody of all the lands and buildings belonging to the city, and the furniture, fixtures and appurtenances thereof, and of the erection, alteration and repairs thereof, except as otherwise provided, subject to such rules, orders and regulations as the city council may from time to time adopt.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

- I. Calling the Roll.
- II. Reading the Records.
- III. Report of the Superintendent.
- IV. Report of the Examining Committee of the several schools, beginning with the Primary.
- V. Reports of the several District Committees.
- VI. Reports of the Standing Committees.
- VII. Reports of Special Committees.
- VIII. Unfinished Business.
- IX. Motions, Resolutions, Petitions, &c.

RULES OF ORDER.

SECTION 1. A majority of the Committee shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 2. The President shall take the chair at the hour appointed for the meeting of the Committee, and shall call the members to order whenever a quorum is present.

SEC. 3. He shall preserve order and decorum. He may speak on general questions, as other members, and on points of order in preference to other members.

SEC. 4. He shall decide all questions of order subject to an appeal to the Committee by any one member.

SEC. 5. He shall rise to address the Committee or to put a question, but he may read sitting.

SEC. 6. He shall declare all votes, and if any member doubt the vote, the President shall require the members voting to rise and stand until they are counted.

SEC. 7. He may express his opinion on any subject under debate; and in such case he shall leave the chair and appoint some other member to take it, but he may state facts on questions of order without leaving his seat.

SEC. 8. He shall put all questions in the order in which they are moved, unless the subsequent motion be previous in its nature; but in naming sums and in fixing times, the largest sum and the longest time shall be put first.

SEC. 9. Any question shall be taken by yeas and nays, provided one-fifth of the members present shall demand it.

SEC. 10. Special committees shall consist of three members, and shall report in writing; they shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

SEC. 11. When any member wishes to speak, he shall rise, and with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the points in debate.

SEC. 12. No member in debate shall mention another by his name, but he may describe him by the ward or the district he represents.

SEC. 13. When two or more members rise at the same time, the President shall name the member who shall speak first.

SEC. 14. No member shall speak more than twice, nor more than five minutes at any one time, on the same question, without leave.

SEC. 15. No motion shall be acted upon until seconded; and, when required, it shall be reduced to writing.

SEC. 16. When a motion has once been made and carried, it shall be in order for any member voting in the majority, to move for a reconsideration.

SEC. 17. Every member who is present when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he be personally interested in the question, or be excused by the President.

SEC. 18. When a question is under consideration, no other motion shall be made except to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone, to commit, or to amend.

SEC. 19. A motion for amendment or postponement, shall be considered as the previous question, and shall be decided before the original motion.

SEC. 20. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, and shall be decided without debate.

SEC. 21. All elections shall be by ballot, when so required by any member.

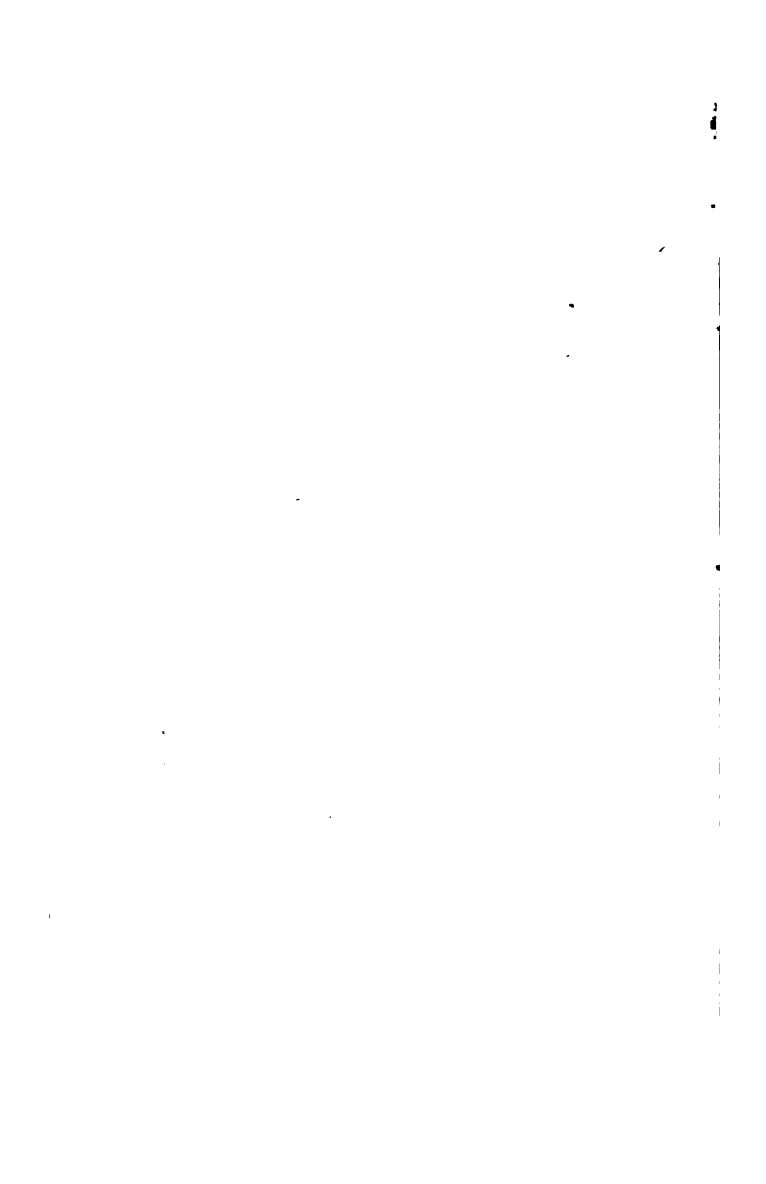

SEC. 22. All questions shall be decided viva voce, or by hand vote, unless a ballot be called for by two members.

SEC. 23. The first member named on any Standing Committee, shall be the chairman thereof, until such Committee shall elect a chairman.

SEC. 24. No member shall be interrupted by another while speaking, except to correct a mistake, or to call to order.

SEC. 25. If any member transgresses the Rules of Order in speaking, the President shall, or any member may, call him to order; in which case the member so called to order, shall immediately take his seat, unless permitted to explain.

SEC. 26. None of the Rules of Order shall be suspended without the consent of two-thirds of the members present.

RULES

RESPECTING THE SALARIES OF TEACHERS BELOW THE RANK OF GRAMMAR GRADE PRINCIPALS.

1. The maximum salaries in the several grades shall be those established by the ordinance.

2. Assistant teachers shall be paid for their first year of service in our public schools, $350; for their second year, $450; for their third year, $500; for their fourth year, $525; for their fifth year, $575; for their sixth year, $625; for their seventh and subsequent years, $700; provided that their pay shall not exceed the maximum allowed to the grade in which they are instructing.

3. Pupil teachers shall receive $200 per annum.

4. Principals shall receive $25 per annum, in addition to the pay to which they would be entitled as assistants.

5. No vacancies in the position of primary principal shall hereafter be filled except in buildings having primary grades only.

NOTE.—Assistant teachers in primary grades are paid $450 for their third year, and $500 for their fourth and subsequent years.

6. Assistant teachers of the first grade in grammar schools shall be those having charge of pupils doing the work of the last year in the grammar school course.

7. Assistant teachers of the second grade in grammar schools shall be those having charge of pupils doing the work of the year preceding the last in the grammar school course.

8. These grades [first and second grades in grammar school] shall be determined in September of each year for the school year ensuing.

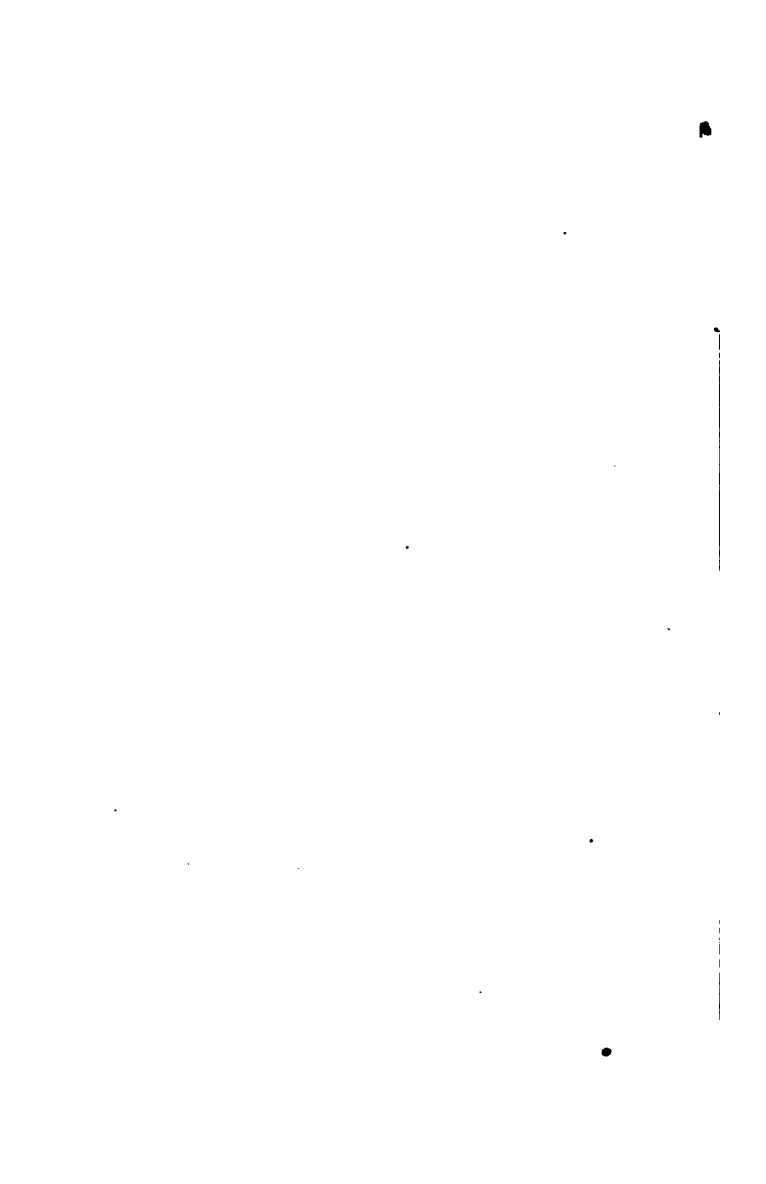

9. The above rules shall not operate to reduce the salary of any teacher in our schools below that to which she is now entitled by existing rules, while she holds her present grade and rank.

10. The Committee on Qualifications shall have power, within the limits of the salary ordinance, to credit teachers in our schools who have had experience elsewhere, and those who are believed to be teachers of unusual merit, with such length of service in our schools as it shall deem proper.

11. For less than twenty schools days. If the salary of the regular teacher be $200, the pay of the substitute shall be $1.00 per day; if $350, $1.25 per day; if between $350 and $575, $1.50 per day; if $575, $1.75 per day; if $600 and upwards, $2.00 per day.

12. For twenty or more days continuous teaching. In case a substitute be employed in the same position twenty or more consecutive school days, she shall receive the same pay to which she would be entitled if appointed to that position, provided her salary shall not exceed that of the teacher for whom she is substituting.

RULES

RESPECTING THE SALARIES OF TEACHERS BELOW THE RANK OF GRAMMAR GRADE PRINCIPALS.

1. The maximum salaries in the several grades shall be those established by the ordinance.

2. Assistant teachers shall be paid for their first year of service in our public schools, $350; for their second year, $450; for their third year, $500; for their fourth year, $525; for their fifth year, $575; for their sixth year, $625; for their seventh and subsequent years, $700; provided that their pay shall not exceed the maximum allowed to the grade in which they are instructing.

3. Pupil teachers shall receive $200 per annum.

4. Principals shall receive $25 per annum, in addition to the pay to which they would be entitled as assistants.

5. No vacancies in the position of primary principal shall hereafter be filled except in buildings having primary grades only.

NOTE.—Assistant teachers in primary grades are paid $450 for their third year, and $500 for their fourth and subsequent years.

6. Assistant teachers of the first grade in grammar schools shall be those having charge of pupils doing the work of the last year in the grammar school course.

7. Assistant teachers of the second grade in grammar schools shall be those having charge of pupils doing the work of the year preceding the last in the grammar school course.

8. These grades [first and second grades in grammar school] shall be determined in September of each year for the school year ensuing.

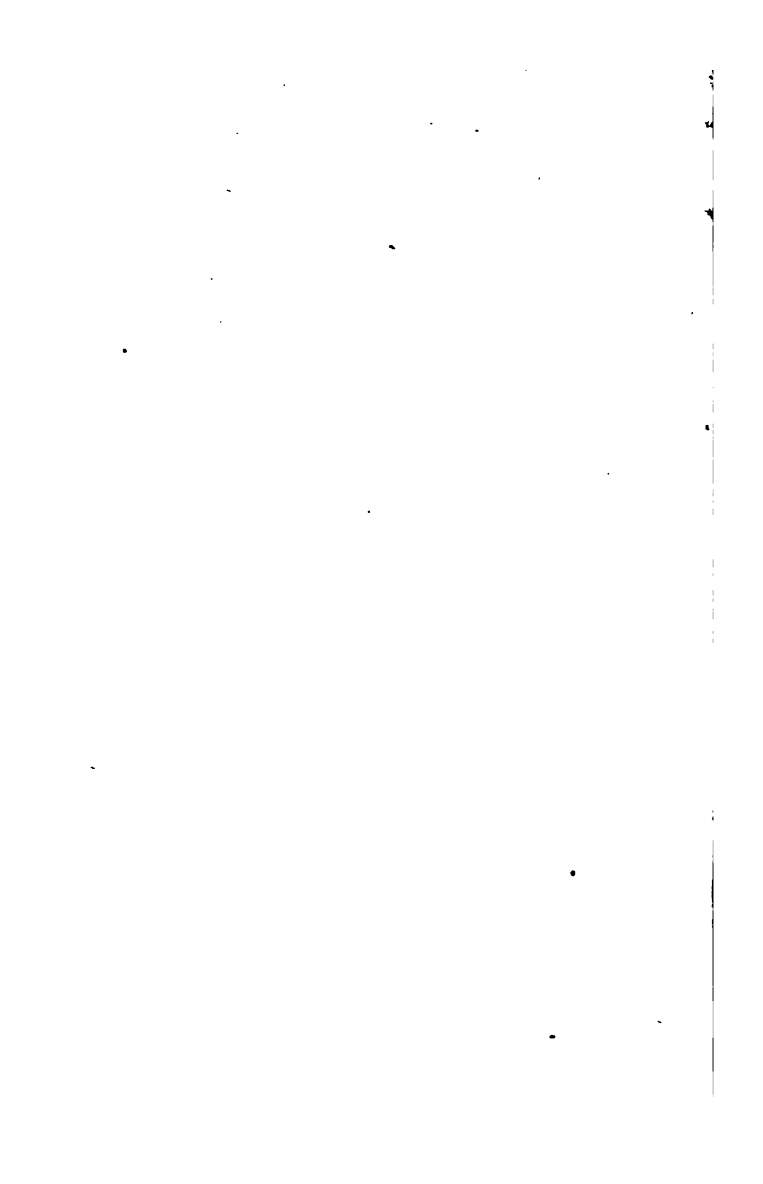

9. The above rules shall not operate to reduce the salary of any teacher in our schools below that to which she is now entitled by existing rules, while she holds her present grade and rank.

10. The Committee on Qualifications shall have power, within the limits of the salary ordinance, to credit teachers in our schools who have had experience elsewhere, and those who are believed to be teachers of unusual merit, with such length of service in our schools as it shall deem proper.

11. For less than twenty school days: If the salary of the regular teacher be $200, the pay of the substitute shall be $1.00 per day; if $350, $1.25 per day; if between $350 and $575, $1.50 per day; if $575, $1.75 per day; if $600 and upwards, $2.00 per day.

12. For twenty or more days continuous teaching: In case a substitute be employed in the same position twenty or more consecutive school days, she shall receive the same pay to which she would be entitled if appointed to that position, provided her salary shall not exceed that of the teacher for whom she is substituting.
